

Ted Zacks

Chair, Weinberg Residence Board of Directors

A Vancouverite from birth, Ted studied at The University of BC, Queen's University and The London School of Economics. He practiced law in Vancouver and was an active member of the Vancouver Bar Association Executive, Canada Bar Association Committees, the Canadian Association of University Solicitors and the National Association of College and University Attorneys. After completing 20 years of law practice, Ted has been looking after the real estate firm established by his father, Lou Zacks.

Ted has long been active in the Jewish community. He has canvassed for the Combined Jewish Appeal Campaign for more than 50 years, chairing the Campaign for 2 years. Locally, Ted was a Founder and President of both Camp Hatikvah Foundation and the Jewish Foundation of Greater Vancouver and served as Chair of the Jewish Community Foundation. He previously served on the Executive Committee and Board of Louis Brier Home & Hospital and is currently Board Chair of the Louis Brier Jewish Residence Society (the Weinberg Residence). Nationally, Ted served for many years as an Executive Officer and Board member of the Council of Jewish Federations of Canada and United Israel Appeal of Canada; and also served as a Board member of Canadian Jewish Congress and the Canadian Council for Israel and Jewish Affairs.
